First Nations Child & Family Caring Society of Canada

MISSION STATEMENT

Provide reconciliation-based public education, research and support to promote the safety and wellbeing of First Nations children, young people, families and Nations.

VISION STATEMENT

OnEnsure First Nations children and their families have culturally based and equitable opportunities to grow up safely at home, be healthy, get a good education and be proud of who they are.

The Caring Society works to ensure the safety and well-being of First Nations youth and their families through education initiatives, public policy campaigns and providing quality resources to support communities. Using a reconciliation framework that addresses contemporary hardships for Indigenous families in ways that uplift all Canadians, the Caring Society champions culturally based equity for First Nations children and their families so that they can grow up safely at home, be healthy, achieve their dreams, celebrate their languages and culture and be proud of who they are. The Caring Society proudly works with our partners in Canada and around the world to promote the rights of Indigenous children.

Cindy Blackstock, PhD (Social Work)
Executive Director, First Nations Child and Family Caring Society of Canada

A member of the Gitksan First Nation, Cindy has 25 years of social work experience in child protection and Indigenous children's rights. Her promotion of culturally based and evidence informed solutions has been recognized by the Nobel Women's Initiative, the Aboriginal Achievement Foundation, Frontline Defenders and many others. An author of over 50 publications and a widely sought after public speaker, Cindy has collaborated with other Indigenous leaders to assist the United Nations Committee on the Rights of the Child in the development and adoption of a General Comment on the Rights of Indigenous children.

WAYS TO SUPPORT

The First Nations Caring Society Gala is a fund-raising event hosted by the First Nations Child and Family agencies of Manitoba in support of the First Nations Child and Family Caring Society. All proceeds raised support the work of the First Nations Child and Family Caring Society. This year our goal is to raise $100,000. We hope that we can count on your support in one or more of the following ways:

MAKE A DONATION

To ensure the success of this fundraiser and achieve our goal of raising $100,000 in support of our initiatives, we invite you to support:

- By donating to the Art Auction with Indigenous Artwork, Blankets or Hand Crafted Items
- By sponsoring a Table for your organization or other guests
- By becoming an Annual Sponsor to help meet the costs of the Gala
